JUNE 2019 Meeting

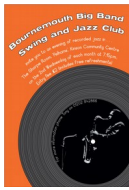

The Chairman welcomed 20 attendees to the meeting (17 members + 3 new guests). Apols for absence: 0

- John Savage announced that, in the absence of any nominations, Phil Lewis has therefore been elected as Secretary/Treasurer of the Club. Applause and congratulations ensued.
- Answers to May Newsletter quiz question: Who said: "Playing 'bop' is like playing Scrabble with all the vowels missing"? A: Duke Ellington in 'Look' magazine 10 Aug 1954
- Freda asked members to sign a 'get-well-soon' card for Helen Robinson who suffered a very bad fall recently.
- Keith Brown brought in a number of CDs which had been donated to the club – 50p per CD.
- Vic Grayson reported on conversations with Chris Walker. He has agreed to 'open' our new August 14 meeting with two audio/visual presentations – one on Duke Ellington and one on Hoagy Carmichael. It is suggested that we bring a guest or friend and that an extra £1 be charged to cover the speakers' expenses.
- Vic Grayson reported that he had produced a DVD of the BBC2 Jazz 625 black & white broadcast from May 3. It is available to members for borrowing and return.
- Derek Fones informed members that the music for Terry Webb's funeral and celebration afterwards can now be found as a Playlist on Spotify. Link: <https://open.spotify.com/user/thephilnel/playlist/1eyweRaaODmLU6cReqa2sb?si=TUkzIRcYSwqbGvJidpgdng>
- Reg Valentine has brought in 2 copies of the magazine 'Jazz rag' for members to borrow, read and return.
- Thanks to the generosity and skill of Phil Lewis' son Nick, the Club may soon have its own website. Early days yet but watch this space!
